LOCAL BREVITIES.

Matters of Minor Moment in and About the City.

Our marriage license was issued yesterday.

Excelsior at the Chapline street ring this evening.

"The Mikado" at Charley Shay's Academy this evening.

A man giving his name as Allen Kelly was arrested at the Academy door last night by Constable Touchin for disorderly conduct. Squire Phillips committed him for a hearing to-day.

The United Nations, Rollers and Heaters' Association has fitted up a new office in the third story of the Office school building. The old quarters will be kept as a sort of rendezvous for members.

Clerk Hook yesterday admitted to record a deed made November 3, by L. G. Hammond and wife to Susanna Hammond, in consideration of $800, for a lot on Alley E, between Twenty-second and Twenty-third streets.

Carl Schreiffler, a fifteen-year-old son of Prof. E. Schreiffler, was playing with a revolver yesterday at his home on South Front street, when the pistol was accidentally discharged, and the ball pierced the boy's wrist. The wound is a painful one, but not dangerous.

The Chapline street club will go to Baltimore to-night to play the Lyceum club at the opening of the Elysian rink. Belaire has a good club and will give the boys a hard game. Both clubs are in splendid condition, and the one that wins will have a well earned victory.

Burglars, though probably amateurs, broke into the office of Squire W. H. Deane in Blackstone street, on Chapline street, Sunday night, and made themselves at home for several hours. Only a few small articles were missing yesterday. An entrance was effected through a back window.

JOHN BURKETT, Wheeling's well known fast skater, has accepted the challenge of John Debbins, of Southville, formerly of Martin's Ferry, to skate a race, mile heats, best two in three, for a purse of $50 a side, at the Chapline street rink, and Friday evening next has been agreed upon as the time at which the race shall take place.

The clever and enterprising manager of the Chapline street rink, always on the lookout for something to please their patrons, have hit on a new idea, which will be presented for the first time in Wheeling to-night. It is found to make everyone laugh. Everyone was talking about it yesterday, but as yet no one knows what it is to be.

Three rough looking men were coming down Seventeenth street yesterday, and one of them entered a yard and assaulted a little girl. There was no person in the neighborhood, but three ladies, who they succeeded in scaring the man away by shouting. The police were notified, and pursued, but did not catch their man. One of the assailant's companions is said to have been Frank O'Donnell.

The case of Patsy O'Donnell and William Kline, who had the difficulty in the Sixth ward on Sunday, November 8, was heard by Squire Davis yesterday afternoon, and both men were fined $25 and costs for assault and battery. Kline paid his fine with alacrity, while O'Donnell's attorneys announced their intention to take an appeal. Later the grand jury indicted Kline for assault with intent to kill.

WILLIAM FAULKNER, accused of robbing William Shakespeare, of $34, had a hearing yesterday before Squire Arkle, and was held in $1,000 bail for his appearance to the action of the grand jury. Later the grand jury indicted Kline for assault with intent to kill.

The Indianapolis Journal says: "The Adah Richmond American Burlesque Company is an organization of very clever people. 'The Sleeping Beauty' is a musical melange of a very pleasing and entertaining character, and the scenic and mechanical effects with which the piece is accompanied are especially taking. All the latest musical hits from the new opera, 'The Black Hawk,' 'Mikado' and 'Nanon,' are introduced, including 'The Girl of the Year,' which was a great success. The singing, especially of 'Seek the Answer in the Stars,' was excellent, and was received with evidence of marked appreciation by the audience."

The theatre-going people of Newark have been having a grand time at the store for some time. As Geo. Williams and the towns named in George Hoy's laughable comedy, "Oh, What a Night!" Mr. Williams has no equal upon the stage in the estimation of the Newark audience, and his singing of music original with himself is always productive of the keenest pleasure. The comedy "Oh What a Night!" is full of fun-provoking situations, and affords Mr. Williams, as "Milo," however, a chance to display his versatile abilities. The company appears Newark, Ohio, November 19, and Wheeling, W. Va., November 21.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

NEW CATHOLIC LAWS.

ULTIMATUM ON LIQUOR SELLING.

And Some Other New Decrees of General Interest—The Work of the Last Plenary Council Promulgated at Baltimore.

What is Said of the New Decrees.

Several publications have recently been made concerning the new decrees of the Plenary Council of the Catholic Church in America, which met this year at Baltimore. These decrees were submitted to the Pope at Rome, and have lately been received by Archbishop Gibbons, at Baltimore, and ordered to be printed for publication.

A report was recently sent out from Baltimore to the Baltimore Post, with the signature of Archbishop Gibbons, Primate of the Catholic Church in America, Dr. D. J. O'Connell, who brought the Plenary Council decrees from Rome, had given out a list of the parts, chapters and sections of the decrees, which had been approved by the Pope and the Propaganda. There were eleven parts approved, which are now laws for Catholics.

Part first treats at length of the Catholic faith and its advantages. Part second contains ecclesiastical laws, and is divided into eight chapters. Part third is devoted to "Divine Worship."

Part fourth has only two chapters, and contains the views of the Council on the sacraments. In the first chapter "Baptism," and in the second "Confirmation."

Part fifth is devoted to clerical education and institutions as follows: First, seminaries for the education of boys; second, higher seminaries; third, the principal seminaries; and fourth, the examination of the junior priests; fifth, theological instructions.

The sixth part of the decrees treats of Catholic instructions for youth. Chapter first treats of Catholic schools, and their recent necessity, and a part of the way and means of increasing their number and maintaining them. Chapter second shows the superiority of Catholic schools over those of other denominations.

Part seven is entitled "Christian Doctrine."

Part eight is entitled "Zeal for Souls."

This part is divided into three chapters. Chapter first, of those who belong in the country and those who have recently arrived; second, of the colored people and the Indians; third, "Societies."

This chapter is divided into three sections: first, prohibited societies; second, certain approved societies; third, societies for the promotion of temperance.

Part nine treats of the goods belonging to the priests and church under the head of "Ecclesiastical Temporalities." Part ten is devoted to the subject of "Ecclesiastical Judges." Part eleven is regarding the interest of ecclesiastics.
